INTERVIEW SKILLS

Course Title	Interview Skills
Dates	24 th April 2018
Training out comes	Interviewing skills are the emotional and tactical techniques that make job seekers more effective when interviewing for a new position. These skills are important to gain, just like the technical skills and workplace skills one need to perform well in a position. By developing interviewing skills and practicing them throughout one's professional journey, students can feel more confident about any upcoming interview and experience a more fulfilling career.

Program Summary

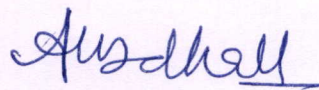

Resource person highlighted the importance of Interview skills for students. He covered following important points; the interview is a formal meeting between a client and a candidate with the intention of acquiring information from the applicant. Usually, the interviewer asks the questions, and the interviewee answers them. These questions are asked for the purpose of employment, psychology tests, research, interrogation, consultation, and journalism etc.

Interviews are mostly conducted face-to-face, but with the advent of science and technology, it has now become easier to do them online through video calls. Telephonic conversations are also one of the methods of interviewing.

Interviewing skills

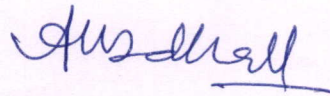

- Self-preparation
- Research
- Mastering your emotions
- Logistical planning
- Communication
- Introducing yourself
- Presenting your qualifications
- Listening skills
